

RELIGION IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The Fall Mountain Regional School District will not establish, promote, or criticize any religion or religious belief.

Recognition of religious occasions in schools will be considered opportunities to learn, not to practice religion.

An individual's religious freedom will be protected. The school will not require any student participation in observances or practices that might violate their religious beliefs.