Re: Remote Learning and Food Service Updates

It is hard to believe that we will be entering our fifth week of remote learning on Monday. Our staff continues to find innovative ways to provide instruction and support to our students. We continue to be impressed by the support of our families and community in this unprecedented time. We look forward to the day when we will no longer see faces on a computer screen and can truly be together in schools and as a district. Until then, we will support you, our students and our families to the best of our ability. Please review the information below and reach out to us if you have any questions, concerns or comments.

REMOTE INSTRUCTION AND LEARNING

The NH Department of Education has provided additional guidance for remote learning. The document titled “Guidance for Extended Emergency Order Remote Instruction and Support” is linked here but may also be found at nhlearnsremotely.com along with other resources. This document is intended to set a tone for remote instruction and all information that has been shared with you so far from our administrative team is in line with this guidance.

As ordered by Governor Sununu, remote instruction will continue through May 4th. There is a strong possibility that remote learning will be extended further and we anticipate additional guidance will be given by April 17th. We will continue to keep you updated as we learn more.
